

HOW TO MANAGE THE IMMINENT REALITY

It has become evident that the impact of Corona Virus on our society has moved from theoretical debate to one of imminent reality. As CEO's of their families, working parents and carers are in need of practical and realistic information to help their children understand reality and make a plan to prepare themselves and their children for what may come in the next few months. This webinar is designed to provide the information parents and carers need in a succinct and positive way so that they leave feeling confident, moving forward with a plan to support both work and home through the next few months.

SESSION OUTLINE

- Talking to children about Corona Virus at all ages
- Working from home with children around
- Maintaining learning through school closure
- Keeping sane through quarantine
- Useful websites and resources

SESSION INCLUDES

- Personal attention and feedback in an informal atmosphere
- An invaluable booklet complete with information covered on the session
- Open forum to ask questions

GWEN JONES (SPEAKER)

Gwen studied Psychology at the University of Utah with a focus on child and adolescent development. She then trained to become a teacher in Special Education, working with children with severe behaviour disorders, autism and the at risk population. She has trained many educators on behaviour management and cultural awareness. Gwen has taught in the USA and the UK at the primary and secondary levels. Most recently, she has trained as a psychotherapist and parent coach and now works with both children and parents in that capacity. A mother of 4, she is very active in her children's schools serving as a volunteer, Rainbow leader and chair of the PTFA. Political activism has always played a strong role in her life. She and her family have been active in causes such as: LGBT marriage rights, Animal Conservation, and Rock the Vote.